HISTORY OF THE LIBRARY.

In 1825, an Association of Gentlemen was formed in the West Parish Society, under the name of the West Parish Association. One of the objects of this Association was "the formation of a Library of Practical Theology for the use of the Parish." By contributions of money and books from members of the Association and others, a valuable Library was soon established. In the year 1832, the Association voted to give the Library to the Parish. The Society accepted the offer, and passed the following votes at the annual meeting on April 5, 1832:—

"Voted, That the proposal of the West Parish Association to transfer their Library, as announced in the letter of Dr. Lowell to the Treasurer, be accepted by the West Boston Society.

"Voted, That the Standing Committee, with Dr. Lowell, be a Committee to receive and superintend the Library for the use and benefit of the Society; and that they be requested to recommend suitable means for the regular increase, preservation, and usefulness thereof, by the voluntary contributions of persons who may feel inclined to patronize an object in which our Pastor takes a deep interest."

In accordance with these votes, ample accommodations were prepared in the Sunday-school room for its reception; and an annual contribution on Fast Day was instituted, a large portion of which has been always appropriated for the benefit of this Library. Large additions have been made of valuable standard works in history, theology, and general literature; and the Library now numbers about thirteen hundred volumes.

REGULATIONS OF THE LIBRARY.

Books may be taken on every Sabbath after the afternoon service.

No volume can be retained for a longer period than two weeks, unless renewed by consent of the Librarian.

If any volume be lost or injured, the volume, or the set to which it belongs, shall be replaced, or its value in money given to the Librarian by the person to whom it is charged in his record.
